to walk as ONE™

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Some of the best students at our school never stop trying until they master a skill or complete an assignment or achieve a goal. It is a determination that stays focused, overcoming obstacles, solving problems, and learning skills. Success comes to those who are persistent and attentive to their goals.

Motivated by love, people can be very persistent in finding help for a loved one, working for a better job, or struggling to create a better place to live and learn. Our motivation is an important part of what drives us towards our goals. It is a reason to sacrifice, work and try again until we succeed. We want what's best for those we love.

God wants what's best for His people. So, when God calls us to love one another, we are graced and motivated to achieve great things. Our hearts are always restless as we look for God's Presence and hold on to the hope of salvation. It is not always an easy journey. But together we persist, overcoming sin and temptation to find the fruits and gifts of the Holy Spirit. Success will come to those who answer God's call.

News & Updates

"Teach me your ways, O Lord" (Ps 25:4)

Why do we need to go to Mass?
(Continuation from last week.)

The Mass is a refuge in the Spiritual Battle, where we meet our King, hear His commands, and become strengthened with the Bread of Life. Every Mass is a miracle where Jesus Christ is present, a miracle that is the high point not only of the week, but of our entire lives on Earth. In the Mass, a man gives thanks to God for His many blessings and hears Christ send him again into the world to build the Kingdom of God. So, fathers, please bring your families to Mass and help, in a very real way, to ensure their eternal salvation. Amen.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you and your family, now and forever,
The Knights of Bishop Flanagan Council 12710

All of us at Bethany House Ministries are deeply grateful for your generous donation of over $700 worth of Gift Cards. Your donation helped us to provide holiday gifts to over 3000 folks in prisons as well as in shelters in Massachusetts and men and women recently released from prison. Knowing that there are people on this side of the wall who care brings a sense of hope to men and women who are often marginalized and are forgotten by much of society..

Please be assured of the prayers and gratitude from our Bethany community, both in and out of prison.

With Gratefulness and Many Blessings,
